Burn code
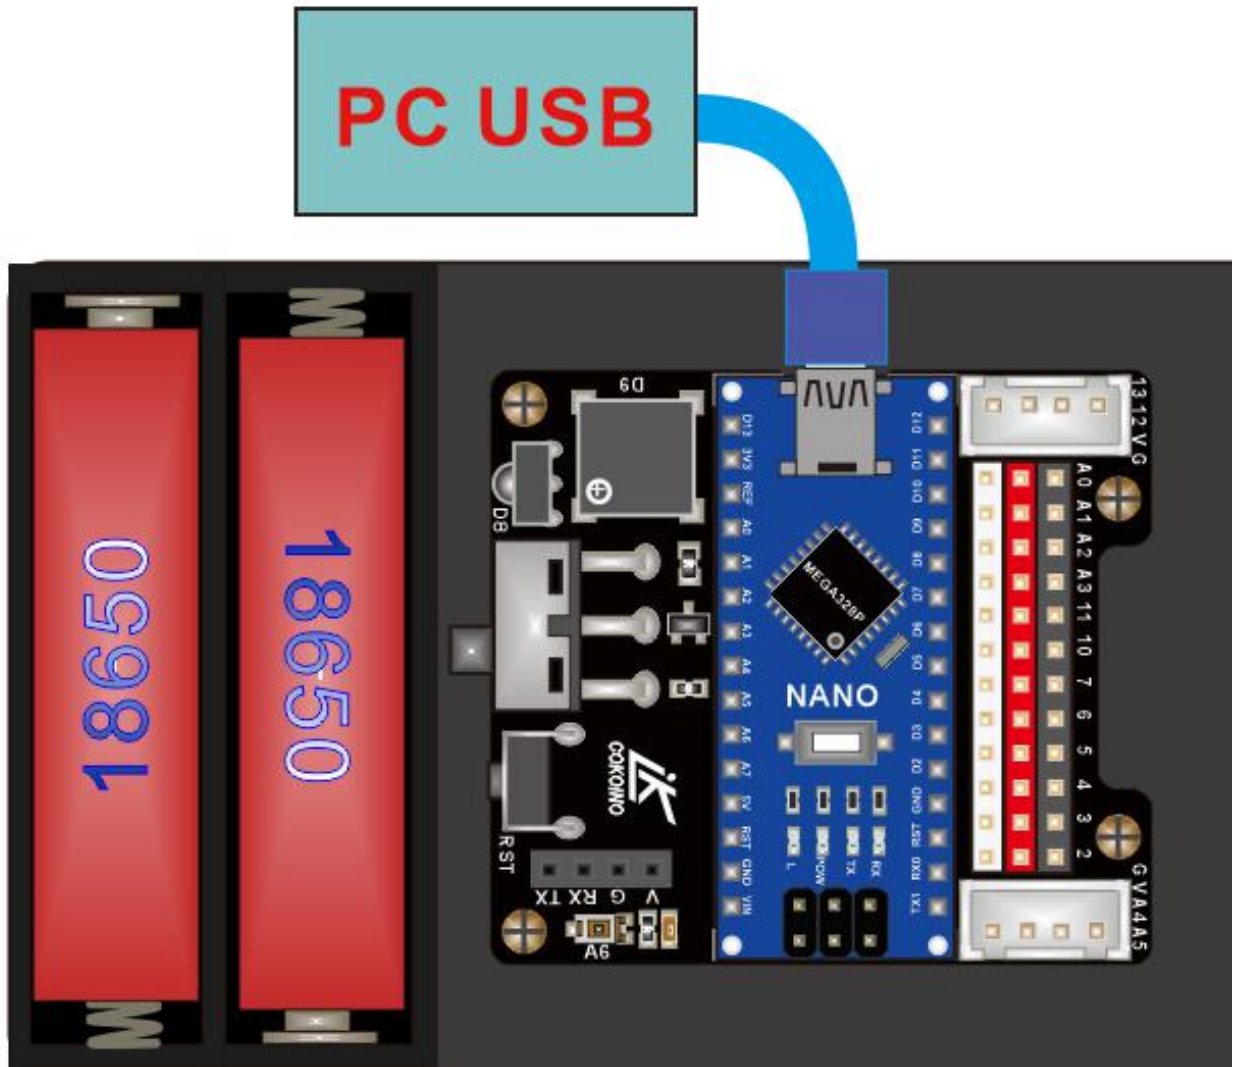

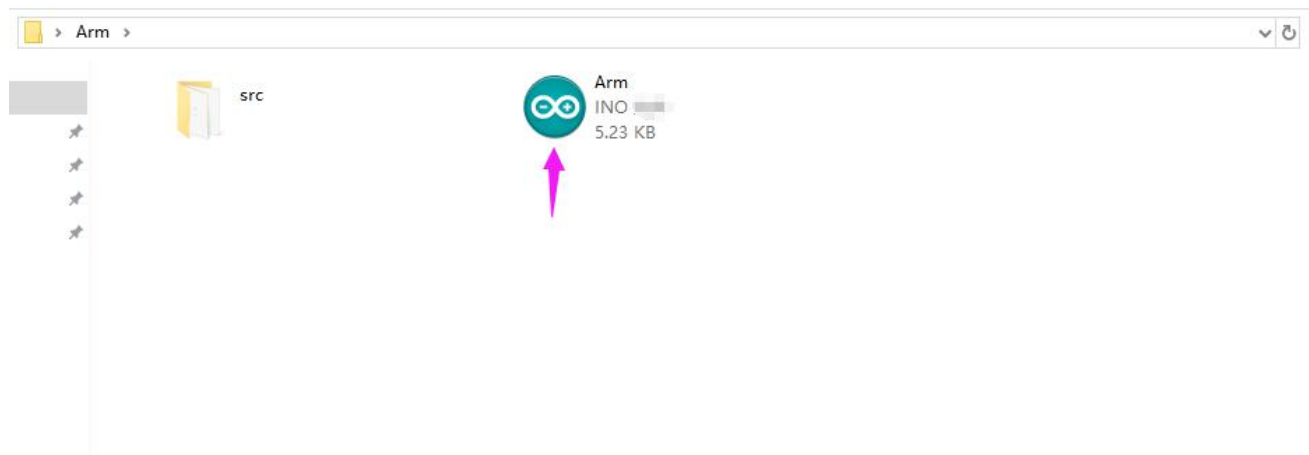

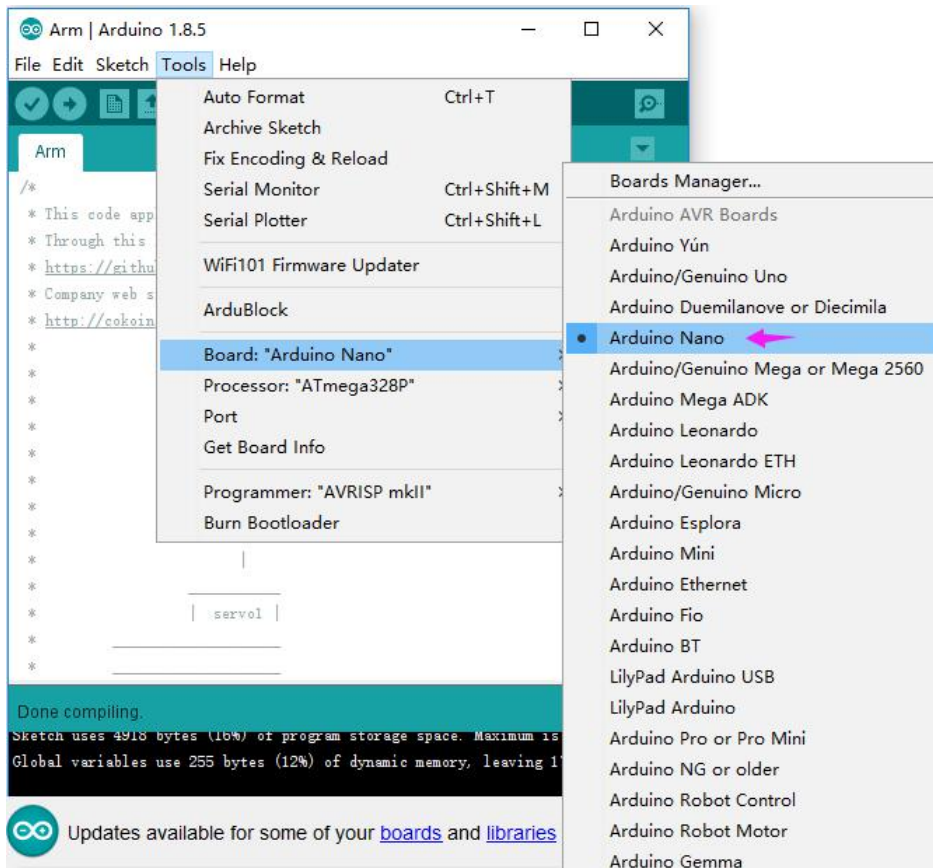

1. Turn the power switch on the nano shield to the "ON" state, and connect the nano to the USB Port of the PC via a USB cable：

2. Double-click to open the sample code in the code file, as shown below:
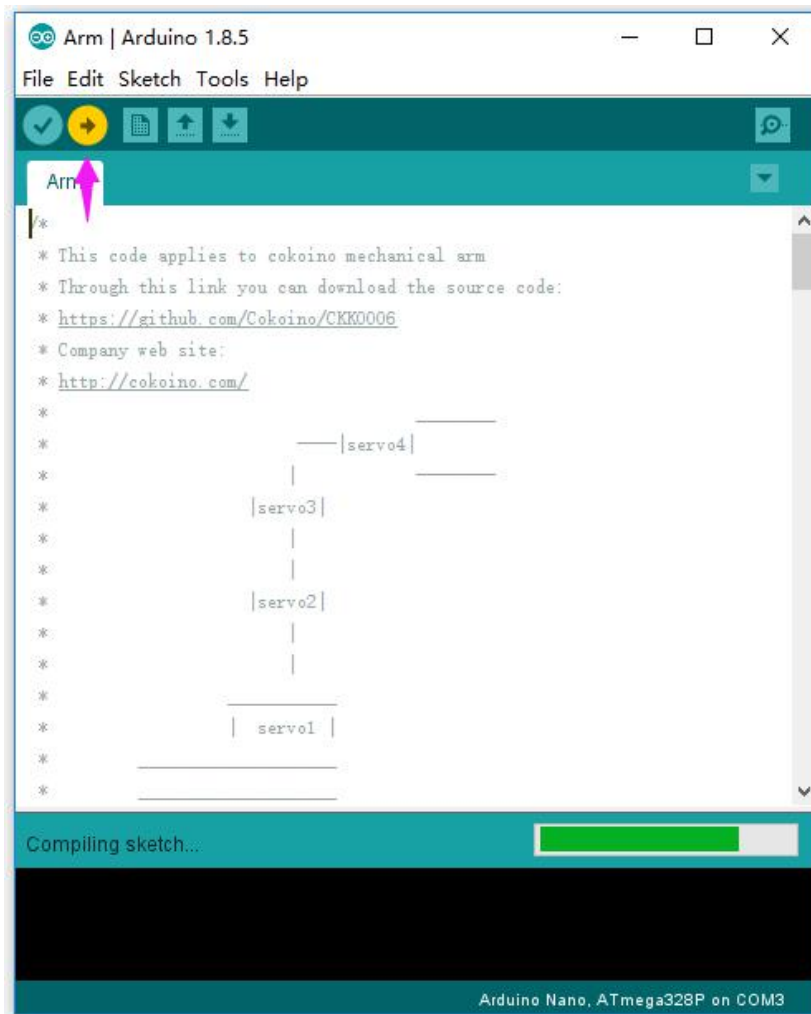

3. Open the initial code diagram

4. Check the code

5. Select the development board model

6. Select the burn port

7. Burn the code：

Now that the code has been burned, please follow the next step to learn how to move the robot arm and feel the joy of success！